

SANTA MONICA
SEAFOOD®
Family Owned Since 1939

Swai

Species Name:

Pangasianodon hypophthalmus

Sustainability Rating:

Yellow - Good Alternative

What:

A farm raised relative of the catfish family commonly called Sutchi Catfish from Vietnam.

When:

Available Year-Round

Where:

Vietnam

How:

Farm Raised

CHARACTERISTICS

If you're looking for a mild tasting fish at a great price, check into Swai. It cooks up white and flaky with a sweet mild, taste.

FOR YOUR MENU

Use Swai as you would catfish - bake it, broil it, pan or deep-fry it - it's pretty versatile and easy to work with. Kids love it - so maybe add it to your kid's menu.

FOR YOUR WAITSTAFF

If your customers wonder about Swai, let them know it's a tasty alternative to catfish - mild and delicious (great for people who claim they don't like "fishy" fish).

FOR YOUR RETAIL DISPLAY

These beautiful white fillets are a great way to offer people an easy to cook fish at a great price - make sure you point it out!